PASSENGERS ON ANOTHER TRAIN SUFFOCATE IN FRANTIC EFFORT TO ESCAPE.

Paris, Aug. 11.—A catastrophe occurred last evening on the Metropolitan Electric railway, which runs mostly underground, in which many persons are believed to have lost their lives. Up to 3 o'clock this morning seven bodies have been recovered and the search continues.

One of the trains broke down at Menilmontant station, which is in a poor and populous quarter of Paris. This train was promptly emptied and the train which followed was ordered to push it to the repairing sheds. On the way these two trains caught fire, but the employees succeeded in escaping. Meanwhile a crowded train roach Les Charonnes, the preceding station, and the officials, seeing smoke pouring out of the tunnel, gave the alarm. A panic ensued, the passengers struggling to escape from the station. Amid the increasing smoke many attempted to return along the line toward Belleville, and they were suffocated.

The officials seem to have lost their heads and are unable to say how many passengers went out. The firemen for several hours were unable to enter the station or the tunnel, owing to the dense smoke which poured out in black clouds. Meanwhile thousands of anxious people gathered about the station. All the police and fire officers were on the spot. The excitement was intense.

Finally the firemen flooded the burning mass and shortly afterward they entered the tunnel. They brought up the corpses of five men and two women, all belonging to the working class.

Eighty-two bodies have been recovered from the trains which were destroyed by fire on the Metropolitan Electric railway. The total number of victims is estimated at ninety.

SWEEP BY A HURRICANE.

Island of Martinique Visited by a Violent Storm.

Fort De France, Martinique, Aug. 11.—The island of Martinique was swept by a hurricane of great violence Saturday night. Its duration was ten hours and it was particularly severe during two hours at Fort de France, where it caused much destruction. Hundreds of houses were unroofed and several sailing vessels were badly damaged. No fatalities, however, have been reported. The streets are encumbered with debris from the tiled roofs and the roads are impassable on account of fallen trees, which were literally torn up by the roots. Several towns on the island suffered considerably, principally Trinité, St. Marie, Carbet, St. Joseph and Francois. The storm moved in a northwesterly direction.

Kingston, Jamaica, Aug. 11.—The tail of a hurricane moving over the Antilles struck the eastern end of the island of Jamaica Monday afternoon and did great damage to the banana properties of the United Fruit and the Jamaica Fruit company. The full extent of the injury is still unknown. The hurricane appeared to be moving northward in the direction of Cuba.

San Juan, P. R., Aug. 11.—The people of the island are alarmed over the high southeast winds which are blowing. Hurricane signals have been set by the order of the weather bureau. Barbados reports that a hurricane prevails northwest.

BURNS CAUSE HER DEATH.

Aged Woman's Clothing Takes Fire From Tobacco in Her Pipe.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 11.—Because she failed to knock the half-burned tobacco from a pipe before she put it into her petticoat pocket, Mrs. Taylor Greening, sixty-four years old, Monday sustained burns that caused her death. Mrs. Greening and her husband were driving to Loomis in a wagon. Just before they reached town, Mrs. Greening, who had been smoking, removed the pipe from her mouth and, believing the tobacco was not on fire, placed it in her pocket. In a few minutes her clothes were ablaze, and the woman inhaled the flames before her husband could smother them. Mrs. Greening had lived near Loomis for sixty years and had smoked a pipe most of the time.

ANOTHER FATIGUING DAY.

Pope Pius Receives Delegations to Coronation Ceremonies.

Rome, Aug. 11.—Pius X. had another fatiguing day, as he received all the delegations which had come to Rome to attend the coronation ceremonies. He accorded a lengthy audience to about 300 from Venice, receiving them in the Clementine hall.

The pontiff allowed all the members of the delegation to kiss his hand, and called by name those whom he knew, just as he had when he met them in Venice. He said to them: "I am a poor mortal, too weak for the heavy cross which God has given me. But His will be done. I will carry it as best I can and you must all pray to our Lord to give me the necessary strength."

His old Venetian friends agree that the pope looks ten years older than he did before his election, but that his affable manner had not changed.

PAPAL SECRETARY OF STATE.

Cardinal Martinelli Said to Be Slated for the Position.

London, Aug. 11.—The Chronicle's Rome correspondent says this morning that an authority, which is frequently well informed, says that Cardinal Sebastiano Martinelli will be appointed papal secretary of state. Cardinal Martinelli succeeded Cardinal Satolli as the pope's representative in the United States in 1897 and remained there until he was recalled to Rome by the pope in May, 1902. He was given the red hat by Leo XIII in April, 1891.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 11.—J. T. Stewart, present commander-in-chief of the G. A. I do not think that any other candidate can win against General Black. The majority of the larger departments in the country have been instructed for General Black and he will be elected."

"Will there be any recognition of General Miles in the convention, any resolutions or anything of that kind?" was asked.

"I cannot say as to that," said General Stewart. "It may be that there will be action taken in San Francisco that would express the appreciation of the boys of '61' for the service rendered by a comrade in that war, especially a comrade who has since commanded the army of the United States, but, as I said before, I have no knowledge that General Miles is a candidate for commander-in-chief, but I am sure that he cannot be elected."

EXCHANGE OF VIEWS

POWERS WILL SUPPORT RUSSIA AND AUSTRIA IN EFFORTS TO END FIGHTING.

APPEAL FROM MACEDONIANS

COMMITTEE SAYS EUROPEAN INTERVENTION ALONE WILL STOP BLOODSHED.

Rome, Aug. 11.—It is stated here that there has been an exchange of views between the powers regarding the situation in Macedonia, and that apparently, the powers have decided to support Austria and Russia in efforts to re-establish peace.

Reports previously received here from Italian consuls in the Balkans predicted the present revival of the insurrection, which the consuls considered to be almost entirely the work of Boris Sarafoff, the Macedonian agitator, who is now in command of the insurgents. It being pointed out that the attitude of the Bulgarian government has been correct since receiving Russia's admonition.

The plan of Sarafoff, as understood here, is to bring about European intervention by provoking the Turks to a massacre, and the murder of the Russian consul at Monastir, M. Rostkovski, is considered here to have played into the hands of the revolutionists in this respect. M. Rostkovski is represented here as having been a very arrogant official, who, upon occasions, boxed the ears of soldiers and police whose conduct displeased him.

MACEDONIANS APPEAL.

Ask That Powers Intervene to Prevent Further Bloodshed.

Sofia, Aug. 11.—The delegates here of the Macedonian committee, Doctors Tatartcheff, Christo and Matoff, addressed the following appeal to each of the representatives of the powers: "Your excellency. The delegates of the Macedonian committee have the honor to bring to your notice the following declaration with the request that you communicate it to your government: "The Mussulmans systematic persecution has compelled the Christians in Macedonia and the vilayet of Adrianople to institute a general rising. They have had recourse to this extreme measure after exhausting all pacific means to secure the intervention of Europe to enforce the provisions of the Berlin treaty. At the present moment, intervention is the only means of remedying the evil and stopping bloodshed. The sporadic efforts of the powers to secure reforms having failed, they resulted merely in a recrudescence of Turkish fanaticism and government oppression."

"It is evident that reform measures, to be efficacious, must include the appointment of a Christian governor general of Macedonia, some one who has never Held Office Under the Porte, and who must be independent of the Turkish government in the exercise of his functions, and the further appointment by the powers of a joint, permanent administrative board with full powers to deal with any disturbance."

"Having published the foregoing facts to the civilized world and made known the causes which have driven the Macedonians to despair, the committee for the Macedonians now in arms proposes to continue the fight till the object of their uprising has been attained."

The representatives of the Macedonian revolutionary committee have published a statement saying that the number of insurgents in the district of Monastir is 8,000 and that they are armed with rifles purchased in Greece. It also states that Aug. 2, 600 insurgents destroyed three detachments of Turkish troops, numbering altogether 100, and attacked the town of Kitchovo, but failed to occupy it. The insurgents, however, destroyed the Turkish village of Drougovo, whose inhabitants had come to the assistance of the garrison of Kitchovo. The statement further says that three Christian villages, Smilevo, Krouche and Bolno, near Monastir, have been completely destroyed by the Turkish troops.

PROVOKED BY TURKEY.

Ottoman Government Responsible for Macedonian Uprising.

London, Aug. 11.—The Times this morning prints a dispatch from Sofia, Bulgaria, which says it is believed there that the Turkish government provoked the present Macedonian rising, for not only has Turkey failed to execute the promises made to the Bulgarian government for the amelioration of the condition of the Bulgarian Macedonians, but she has increased her persecution of maltreatment, thus exasperating them. If the Turks should try now to suppress the rebellion by the massacre of innocent people, the Bulgarian government would be obliged to intervene."

Three Men Killed in a Mine.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 11.—The steamer Humboldt, from Skagway, brought news that three men, names not learned, were killed in a mine at Treadwell and several more badly injured. Three tiers of timbers were loosened and crashed down on the heads of the workmen.

A FAST, SHORT FIGHT.

Trainer Delaney Says Jeffries Will Soon Dispose of Corbett.

San Francisco, Aug. 11.—The latest news from Harbin Springs is to the effect that Champion Jeffries weighs close to 230 pounds, but does not appear to be as fleshy.

"The champion," Trainer Delaney said, "does not intend to permit the bout to drag along to an endless length. Jeffries will fight with such strength and speed that he will early bring Corbett down to his level of agility. When he once gets him there the battle can be considered as over."

When this statement was repeated to Corbett the latter said:

"So Jeff expects to make the fight a short one, does he?"

"Well, I hope he tries to, for if he does, he will find me on hand. He will not have to chase me either, for I have invented a short-arm defense which I believe an enigma to him. I am much stronger in punches than I have ever been and firmly believe I will be able to put forty enough in my blows to knock Jeffries down and put him out."

COMPELLED TO RESIGN.

South Dakota Pastor Painted and Papered a Saloon Building.

Sloans Falls, S. D., Aug. 11.—Because Rev. T. A. Miller, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Kimball, S. D., painted and papered a saloon building, he has been compelled to resign as pastor. His salary was not sufficient to support him, and he has on week days been spending his time papering and painting buildings. When he decorated the saloon building the members of the church held an indignation meeting and it was decided that it was time for him to retire.

The trustees of the church instituted a suit against him for possession of the parsonage and $25 alleged to be due for rent. This has now been settled out of court by the preacher agreeing to vacate the parsonage within eight days.

PAST ALL DANGER.

John Redmond Looks Upon Irish Land Bill as an Accomplished Fact.

London, Aug. 11.—The report on the amendments to the Irish land bill were read in the house of lords last night and the bill probably will be passed to a third reading today.

John E. Redmond, Nationalist, said to a representative of the Associated Press last night:

"The Irish land bill may now be regarded as past all danger. We may look upon it as an accomplished fact. If it works as it is confidently hoped it will, there is no question that it will effect a revolution in the condition of Ireland. A satisfactory home rule bill appears more probable today than the land bill, which is just about to be passed, looked a year ago. I feel quite sure that the national movement is now on the high road to complete success."

TO FIX A MINIMUM PRICE.

An American Association Tries to Form a Wheat Combine.

London, Aug. 11.—The Daily Mail this morning prints a dispatch from Warsaw which says that an American association, said to comprise 38,000 farmers, has addressed itself to the Russian ministers of finance and agriculture requesting their assistance in raising the current prices of agricultural produce, particularly wheat, and saying that the association projects a great union between the wheat-growing countries of the world for the purpose of fixing an annual minimum selling price. In view of M. De Witte's abhorrence of trusts, the correspondent adds, it is doubtful whether he will accept the bait.

"Will there be any recognition of General Miles in the convention, any resolutions or anything of that kind?" was asked.

"I cannot say as to that," said General Stewart. "It may be that there will be action taken in San Francisco that would express the appreciation of the 'boys of '61' for the service rendered by a comrade in that war, especially a comrade who has since commanded the army of the United States, but as I said before, I have no knowledge that General Miles is a candidate for commander-in-chief, but I am sure that he cannot be elected."

EXCHANGE OF VIEWS

POWERS WILL SUPPORT RUSSIA AND AUSTRIA IN EFFORTS TO END FIGHTING.

APPEAL FROM MACEDONIANS

COMMITTEE SAYS EUROPEAN INTERVENTION ALONE WILL STOP BLOODSHED.

Rome, Aug. 11.—It is stated here that there has been an exchange of views between the powers regarding the situation in Macedonia, and that apparently, the powers have decided to support Austria and Russia in efforts to re-establish peace.

Reports previously received here from Italian consuls in the Balkans predicted the present revival of the insurrection, which the consuls considered to be almost entirely the work of Boris Sarafoff, the Macedonian agitator, who is now in command of the insurgents, it being pointed out that the attitude of the Bulgarian government has been correct since receiving Russia's admonition.

The plan of Sarafoff, as understood here, is to bring about European intervention by provoking the Turks to a massacre, and the murder of the Russian consul at Monastir. M. Rostkovski, is considered here to have played into the hands of the revolutionists in this respect. M. Rostkovski is represented here as having been a very arrogant official, who, upon occasions, boxed the ears of soldiers and police whose conduct displeased him.

MACEDONIANS APPEAL.

Ask That Powers Intervene to Prevent Further Bloodshed.

Sofia, Aug. 11.—The delegates here of the Macedonian committee, Doctors Tatartcheff, Christo and Matoff, addressed the following appeal to each of the representatives of the powers: "Your excellency: The delegates of the Macedonian committee have the honor to bring to your notice the following declaration with the request that you communicate it to your government:

"The Mussulmans systematic persecution has compelled the Christians in Macedonia and the vilayet of Adrianople to institute a general rising. They have had recourse to this extreme measure after exhausting all pacific means to secure the intervention of Europe to enforce the provisions of the Berlin treaty. At the present moment, intervention is the only means of remedying the evil and stopping bloodshed. The sporadic efforts of the powers to secure reforms having failed, they resulted merely in a re-enslavement of Turkish fanaticism and government oppression.

"It is evident that reform measures, to be efficacious, must include the appointment of a Christian governor general of Macedonia, some one who has never

Held Office Under the Porte, and who must be independent of the Turkish government in the exercise of his functions, and the further appointment by the powers of a joint, permanent administrative board with full powers to deal with any disturbance.

"Having published the foregoing facts to the civilized world and made known the causes which have driven the Macedonians to despair, the committee for the Macedonians now in arms proposes to continue the fight till the object of their uprising has been attained."

The representatives of the Macedonian revolutionary committee have published a statement saying that the number of insurgents in the district of Monastir is 8,000 and that they are armed with rifles purchased in Greece.

It also states that Aug. 2, 600 insurgents destroyed three detachments of Turkish troops, numbering altogether 100, and attacked the town of Kitchovo, but failed to occupy it. The insurgents, however, destroyed the Turkish village of Drougovo, whose inhabitants had come to the assistance of the garrison of Kitchovo. The statement further says that three Christian villages, Smilevo, Krouche and Bolno, near Monastir, have been completely destroyed by the Turkish troops.

PROVOKED BY TURKEY.

Ottoman Government Responsible for Macedonian Uprising.

London, Aug. 11.—The Times this morning prints a dispatch from Sofia, Bulgaria, which says it is believed there that the Turkish government provoked the present Macedonian rising, "for not only has Turkey failed to execute the promises made to the Bulgarian government for the amelioration of the condition of the Bulgarian Macedonians, but she has increased her persecution of maltreated, thus exasperating them. If the Turks should try now to suppress the rebellion by the massacre of innocent people, the Bulgarian government would be obliged to intervene."

Three Men Killed in a Mine.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 11.—The steamer Humboldt, from Skagway, brought news that three men, names not learned, were killed in a mine at Treadwell and several more badly injured. Three tiers of timbers were loosened and crashed down on the heads of the workmen.

A FAST, SHORT FIGHT.

Trainer Delaney Says Jeffries Will Soon Dispose of Corbett.

San Francisco, Aug. 11.—The latest news from Harbin Springs is to the effect that Champion Jeffries weighs close to 230 pounds, but does not appear to be fleshy.

"The champion," Trainer Delaney said, "does not intend to permit the bout to drag along to an endless length. Jeffries will fight with such strength and speed that he will early bring Corbett down to his level of agility. When he once gets him there the battle can be considered as over."

When this statement was repeated to Corbett the latter said: "So Jeff expects to make the fight a short one, does he?"

"Well, I hope he tries to, for if he does, he will find me on hand. He will not have to chase me either, for I have invented a short-arm defense which I believe an enigma to him. I am much stronger in punches than I have ever been and firmly believe I will be able to put forth enough in my blows to knock Jeffries down and put him out."

COMPELLED TO RESIGN.

South Dakota Pastor Painted and Papered a Saloon Building.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Aug. 11.—Because Rev. T. A. Miller, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Kimball, S. D., painted and papered a saloon building, he has been compelled to resign as pastor. His salary was not sufficient to support him, and he has on week days been spending his time papering and painting buildings. When he decorated the saloon building the members of the church held an indignation meeting and it was decided that it was time for him to retire.

The trustees of the church instituted a suit against him for possession of the parsonage and $25 alleged to be due for rent. This has now been settled out of court by the preacher agreeing to vacate the parsonage within eight days.

PAST ALL DANGER.

John Redmond Looks Upon Irish Land Bill as an Accomplished Fact.

London, Aug. 11.—The report on the amendments to the Irish land bill were read in the house of lords last night and the bill probably will be passed to a third reading today.

John E. Redmond, Nationalist, said to a representative of the Associated Press last night:

"The Irish land bill may now be regarded as past all danger. We may look upon it as an accomplished fact. If it works as it is confidently hoped it will, there is no question that it will effect a revolution in the condition of Ireland. A satisfactory home rule bill appears more probable today than the land bill, which is just about to be passed, looked a year ago. I feel quite sure that the national movement is now on the high road to complete success."

TO FIX A MINIMUM PRICE.

An American Association Tries to Form a Wheat Combine.

London, Aug. 11.—The Daily Mail this morning prints a dispatch from Warsaw which says that an American association, said to comprise 38,000 farmers, has addressed itself to the Russian ministers of finance and agriculture requesting their assistance in raising the current prices of agricultural produce, particularly wheat, and saying that the association projects a great union between the wheat-growing countries of the world for the purpose of fixing an annual minimum selling price. In view of M. De Witte's abhorrence of trusts, the correspondent adds, it is doubtful whether he will accept the bait.

NEIGHBORHOOD FEUD.

Two Men Killed and Another Severely Wounded.

Guthrie, Okla., Aug. 11.—As a result of a neighborhood feud, William Cooper and his son, James Cooper, are dead, and Sam Barrett severely wounded. The parties were farmers living near Oleta, Woodward county, and bad blood has existed for over a year. The parties met at a public well and in the altercation young Cooper shot Barrett in the face with a load of shot. Barrett then seized a shotgun and killed both the Coopers. ## OPEN NEWSPAPER MAIL.

Baggagemen Will Be Employed to Distribute It.

Washington, Aug. 11.—Postmaster General Payne has decided to make the experiment of employing baggagemen on trains that are not provided with mail clerks to take charge of delivery of open newspaper mail. This decision has been reached after much consideration and in response to a petition filed by many of the leading newspaper publishers of the country, who asked the postoffice department to provide facilities for distributing open bundles of papers along the lines from trains which carry only closed pouches. There are a large number of such trains, and as the department is not represented by an employee on them, the postmaster general declined to assume responsibility for papers not enclosed in the pouches.

Second Assistant Postmaster General Shallenberger then suggested the expedient of employing the baggagemen to take charge of the mail in such cases, and the suggestion was adopted.

The plan contemplates that the baggagemen shall be sworn in as postoffice department employees and that they shall be paid for their services. It is intended that they shall deliver the papers to those to whom they are addressed at points along the line from the car doors, thus saving much time which would be lost in case the papers were enclosed in the pouches, as this would necessitate their being taken to the local postoffice before they could be delivered to agents.

It is estimated that the cost of the service through baggagemen will be much less than if postoffice employees were supplied for all such trains.

STUCK ON A SANDBAR.

Senatorial Committee on Affairs in Alaska Stranded on the Yukon.

Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 11.—When the steamship St. Paul left Nome ten days ago United States Senators Nelson of Minnesota, Patterson of Colorado and Dillingham of Vermont were stuck on a sandbar in the Yukon river 200 miles above Nulato.

These senators compose part of the senatorial committee appointed to investigate Alaska affairs. After visiting Skagway and Juneau they went to Dawson and inspected Klondike mines. They entered mining camps on the lower Yukon on the steamer Van Vleet. After visiting Eagle and Rampart the senators intended going direct to St. Michael and Nome.

Officials at Nome were notified by wire last week of the party's predicament and wired the captain of the steamer Healy at Rampart to go to the rescue.

ATTORNEYS ARE DISBARRED.

Client Paid $80,000 in Fees in a Few Months.

Honolulu, Aug. 11.—The exciting disbarment proceedings before the supreme court Monday ended in the disbarment of Former Circuit Court Judge A. S. Humphreys and Attorney George Davis. Attorney Thompson is suspended for a year.

The cases grew out of the scandals in the case of an old capitalist, John Sumner. Sumner was forced to fight relatives, who declared him insane. Many attorneys were engaged and some of them switched from one side to the other. Extortionate fees were collected, and Davis was accused of intimidating Sumner into paying a large fee. Sumner paid $80,000 in fees in a few months.

"A BUNCH OF ONIONS."

Unique Title of a Club Formed by Amateur Journalists.

MEMBERSHIP LIMITED TO TEN.

When an "Onionite" Meets an "Onionite" He is to Take a Bite or Draw a Tear, Says the Club's Constitution—Onions of Every Variety to Be Cultivated in Gardens of the Members.

Undoubtedly the "strongest" and strangest club ever organized is the one formed in Chicago recently under the unique title of "A Bunch of Onions," and it is not composed of truck gardeners either, says the Chicago Chronicle.

It was born under very happy circumstances at a well known downtown restaurant during the annual national convention of the Amateur Press association. There are just ten members in the organization and each one holds an office.

There are seven states represented in the club and the members are all enthusiastic writers for amateur publications. The object of this unique organization, as has been announced, is to bring "tears to the eyes of amateur writers."

The membership is limited to ten, and the only way to resign from the club is to die or get married. There is but one meeting each year, and at that session vacancies are filled. Each year one of the members must marry in order to create a vacancy in the club.

The onion is the favorite flower of the organization. The motto is, "In onion there is strength." The officers are as follows:

Chief odor, Louis St. Elmo, Ohio; sliced onion, Edwin Hadley Smith, New York; collector of tears, Miss Maudie McLoughlin, Illinois; gatherer of scents, Miss A. Eunice Frees, Illinois; official editor, Miss J. Irene Maloney, Illinois; executive board, scullion, Albert Gillespie, Indiana; fertilizer, George A. Alderman, North Carolina; sprouts, Foster Gilroy, Pennsylvania; proxy committee or guardians of the scents, Miss E. Merle Hegert, Illinois; Miss Almedia Thomas, Missouri.

The election takes place annually, and all proxies are thrown out by the proxy committee. The members of the club may nominate, second their own nominations and vote for themselves.

The official organ of the club is to be called the Onion Skin. The publication will be in the form of an onion and printed on onion paper. What is more, the meetings of the club are to be called "reunions." The club has one "onionary" member, and that is Charles R. Burger of Colorado. He, it is said, has brought more tears to the eyes of amateur writers during the past year than any other one person. One "onionary" member is elected each year, and "onionary" mention is made of any member where such mention is due.

One of the strange laws of this stranger club is that when a member of the "bunch" visits a town where-in resides another member the visitor must invite the resident member to dinner at his or her expense. The annual dinners, which are very elaborate affairs, must be held on the last night of the annual convention of the National Amateur Press association, and members of the bunch only are allowed to attend. If only one member attends the convention he must eat his dinner with the vacant chairs of his comrades surrounding the table.

The badge of the club is an onion, and it must be worn conspicuously during a convention of amateur journalists. The constitution of the club is the shortest on record and is as follows:

"When an onionite meets an onionite he is to take a bite or draw a tear."

When the chief odor makes a decision it is perfectly in order for any member to take a-peal. The executive office is cal'd the onion patch. Membership in the organization is eagerly sought, and there is already a campaign on for the first vacancy.

Carl Hegert of Chicago thinks the politics in the bunch is "odoriferous," and he has started an antioion crusade. He is also running for the place of onionary member in 1904.

The members announce that the club is in its salad days. All members are asked to become vegetarians and live as much as possible on the succulent onion. One of the aims of the society will be to make fried onions popular, and onions in every variety will be cultivated in the gardens of the members. Instead of confetti the members will use onion seed in time of carnival. After eating a hearty dinner recently in which onions figured extensively one member dreamed the following bill of fare:

Onions; young onions; old onions; onion sets; dried onions; boiled onions; stewed onions; pickled onions; preserved onions.

This member is trying now to have this menu adopted as the official bill of fare. No member may, upon pain of a heavy fine, eat anything to remove the scent of onions from his or her breath.

The New English Rifle.

England is also to adopt a new army rifle which will do equally well for cavalry and infantry. It will be twenty-five inches long instead of thirty, as the British service rifle now is. It is covered completely with wood, like the new American arm. Its caliber is .303, but there is increased twist in the rifling. There will be a few trifling changes in the breech mechanism.

ANNIE OAKLEY IN JAIL.

Famous Rifle Shot Arrested for Stealing a Negro's Trousers.

St. Paul, Aug. 11.—A special to the Globe from Chicago says: Annie Oakley, daughter-in-law of "Buffalo Bill" and the most famous woman rifle shot in the world, lies in a cell in the Harrison street station under a Bridewell sentence of $45 and costs for stealing the trousers of a negro in order to get money with which to buy cocaine. For her spectacular marksmanship King Edward once led the applause in the court yard of Buckingham palace.

The striking beauty of the woman that won the crowds at the world's fair is now entirely gone. Although she is but twenty-eight years old she looks almost forty.

OPEN NEWSPAPER MAIL.

Baggagemen Will Be Employed to Distribute It.

Washington, Aug. 11.—Postmaster General Payne has decided to make the experiment of employing baggagemen on trains that are not provided with mail clerks to take charge of delivery of open newspaper mail. This decision has been reached after much consideration and in response to a petition filed by many of the leading newspaper publishers of the country, who asked the postoffice department to provide facilities for distributing open bundles of papers along the lines from trains which carry only closed pouches. There are a large number of such trains, and as the department is not represented by an employee on them, the postmaster general declined to assume responsibility for papers not enclosed in the pouches.

Second Assistant Postmaster General Shallenberger then suggested the expedient of employing the baggagemen to take charge of the mail in such cases, and the suggestion was adopted. The plan contemplates that the baggagemasters shall be sworn in as post-office department employees and that they shall be paid for their services. It is intended that they shall deliver the papers to those to whom they are addressed at points along the line from the car doors, thus saving much time which would be lost in case the papers were enclosed in the pouches, as this would necessitate their being taken to the local postoffice before they could be delivered to agents.

It is estimated that the cost of the service through baggagemen will be much less than if postoffice employees were supplied for all such trains.

STUCK ON A SANDBAR.

Senatorial Committee on Affairs in Alaska Stranded on the Yukon.

Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 11.—When the steamship St. Paul left Nome ten days ago United States Senators Nelson of Minnesota, Patterson of Colorado and Dillingham of Vermont were stuck on a sandbar in the Yukon river 200 miles above Nulato.

These senators compose part of the senatorial committee appointed to investigate Alaska affairs. After visiting Skagway and Juneau they went to Dawson and inspected Klondike mines. They entered mining camps on the lower Yukon on the steamer Van Vleet. After visiting Eagle and Rampart the senators intended going direct to St. Michael and Nome.

Officials at Nome were notified by wire last week of the party's predicament and wired the captain of the steamer Healy at Rampart to go to the rescue.

ATTORNEYS ARE DISBARRED.

Client Paid $80,000 in Fees in a Few Months.

Honolulu, Aug. 11.—The exciting disbarment proceedings before the supreme court Monday ended in the disbarment of Former Circuit Court Judge A. S. Humphreys and Attorney George Davis. Attorney Thompson is suspended for a year.

The cases grew out of the scandals in the case of an old capitalist, John Sumner. Sumner was forced to fight relatives, who declared him insane. Many attorneys were engaged and some of them switched from one side to the other. Extortionate fees were collected, and Davis was accused of intimidating Sumner into paying a large fee. Sumner paid $80,000 in fees in a few months.

"A BUNCH OF ONIONS."

Unique Title of a Club Formed by Amateur Journalists.

MEMBERSHIP LIMITED TO TEN.

When an "Onionite" Meets an "Onionite" He is to Take a Bite or Draw a Tear, Says the Club's Constitution—Onions of Every Variety to Be Cultivated in Gardens of the Members.

Undoubtedly the "strongest" and strangest club ever organized is the one formed in Chicago recently under the unique title of "A Bunch of Onions," and it is not composed of truck gardeners either, says the Chicago Chronicle.

It was born under very happy circumstances at a well known downtown restaurant during the annual national convention of the Amateur Press association. There are just ten members in the organization and each one holds an office.

There are seven states represented in the club and the members are all enthusiastic writers for amateur publications. The object of this unique organization, as has been announced, is to bring "tears to the eyes of amateur writers."

The membership is limited to ten, and the only way to resign from the club is to die or get married. There is but one meeting each year, and at that session vacancies are filled. Each year one of the members must marry in order to create a vacancy in the club.

Chief odor, Louis St. Elmo, Ohio; sliced onion, Edwin Hadley Smith, New York; collector of tears, Miss Maudie McLoughlin, Illinois; gatherer of scents, Miss A. Eunice Frees, Illinois; official editor, Miss J. Irene Maloney, Illinois; executive board, scullion, Albert Gillespie, Indiana; fertilizer, George A. Alderman, North Carolina; sprouts, Foster Gilroy, Pennsylvania; proxy committee or guardians of the scents, Miss E. Merle Hegert, Illinois; Miss Alemdia Thomas, Missouri.

The election takes place annually, and all proxies are thrown out by the proxy committee. The members of the club may nominate, second their own nominations and vote for themselves.

The official organ of the club is to be called the Onion Skin. The publication will be in the form of an onion and printed on onion paper. What is more, the meetings of the club are to be called "reunionions." The club has one "onionary" member, and that is Charles R. Burger of Colorado. He, it is said, has brought more tears to the eyes of amateur writers during the past year than any other one person. One "onionary" member is elected each year, and "onionary" mention is made of any member where such mention is due.

One of the strange laws of this stranger club is that when a member of the "bunch" visits a town where he resides another member the visitor must invite the resident member to dinner at his or her expense. The annual dinners, which are very elaborate affairs, must be held on the last night of the annual convention of the National Amateur Press association, and members of the bunch only are allowed to attend. If only one member attends the convention he must eat his dinner with the vacant chairs of his comrades surrounding the table.

The badge of the club is an onion, and it must be worn conspicuously during a convention of amateur journalists. The constitution of the club is the shortest on record and is as follows:

"When an onionite meets an onionite he is to take a bite or draw a tear."

When the chief odor makes a decision it is perfectly in order for any member to take a peal. The executive office is called the onion patch. Membership in the organization is eagerly sought, and there is already a campaign on for the first vacancy.

Carl Heart of Chicago thinks the politics in the bunch is "odoriferous," and he has started an antionion crusade. He is also running for the place of onionary member in 1904.

The members announce that the club is in its salad days. All members are asked to become vegetarians and live as much as possible on the succulent onion. One of the aims of the society will be to make fried onions popular, and onions in every variety will be cultivated in the gardens of the members. Instead of confetti the members will use onion seed in time of carnival. After eating a hearty dinner recently in which onions figured extensively one member dreamed the following bill of fare:

"Onions; young onions; old onions; onion sets; fried onions; boiled onions; stewed onions; pickled onions; preserved onions."

This member is trying now to have this menu adopted as the official bill of fare. No member may, upon pain of a heavy fine, eat anything to remove the scent of onions from his or her breath.

The New English Rifle.

England is also to adopt a new army rifle which will do equally well for cavalry and infantry. It will be twenty-five inches long instead of thirty, as the British service rifle now is. It is covered completely with wood, like the new American arm. Its caliber is .303, but there is increased twist in the rifling. There will be a few trifling changes in the breech mechanism.

PRESIDENT TIGHE
REFUSED TO SIGN IT
Could Not Hear City When Asked
to Sign Warranty for Sewer Through Land.

A SPECIAL MEETING TO BE HELD
Council Will Take Up Matter in Special Session and Will Take Action.

Another chapter has been enacted in connection, or rather emanating from, the questions which are just now agitating the minds of the members of the city council and citizens generally, which have to do with the betterment of the general sewerage and water works systems of the city, and the one now seems contingent upon the other, and the matter has about worked itself down to a give and take proposition, with President Ambrose Tighe and the Minnesota Water Works company on the one hand and the city on the other.

At no time in the history of Brainerd has there been such important legislation as last winter, as affecting the interests of the city and the laying of plans for the future development and establishment of permanent municipal improvements, and naturally there have been and there are still contentions as between corporate and municipal interests, which must be fought out.

The bill introduced by Senator Ferris making provision for cities the size of Brainerd to establish and maintain sewerage systems has made it possible for Brainerd to take the first steps in a very important piece of work, and the members of the city council have been alert and have with every expediency taken the necessary steps looking toward the establishment of a thorough sewerage system in the city.

But the city council, it is understood, has just now run up against a snag, which temporarily may defeat the plans as originally laid out, but which it is thought will not result in the abandonment of the work so well started. As is well known in preparing plans for a new sewer, as in the case where the city council has decided to establish a sewer district, comprising all of the Second ward, creating sewer district No. 1, it is first necessary to secure a certain warranty or deed from the people through whose property the said main sewer or its laterals are to run. This work has progressed very satisfactorily up to within a few days ago when such a contract was sent to President Tighe of the Minnesota Water Works company for his signature, allowing the city to run a sewer through a certain strip of land which he owns lying between Fifth and Seventh streets, taking in what is known as the bottom or flat just below Bluff avenue.

City Attorney Fleming this morning informed a representative of the Dispatch, that President Tighe had refused to sign this contract or deed, and now it is said that a special meeting of the city council will be called to take up the matter and decide what to do. The only remedy is by condemnation proceedings, but it is thought the matter may be amicably settled without resorting to this procedure.

There are those who are ready perhaps to intimate that this is the manner in which President Tighe has for reciprocating for the action the citizen's committee took regarding his proposals at the last meeting, and the recommendations the committee made to the city council to commence proceedings to condemn the entire water works plant in this city. This would hardly be a logical conclusion but until some further explanation on the matter is heard from President Tighe it will be taken for granted that he is "getting back" at the city in this roundabout way.

And thus the two important questions of sewerage and water works are made contingent one upon the other.

In this connection it is stated that there are some of the members of the council who are not in favor of following the recommendations of the citizen's committee regarding the condemnation proceedings, but of course this is a question which will come to surface at the next meeting of council.

Heretofore there have been no barriers in the way of the city council in the matter of sewers and it is to be regretted that the work will be even temporarily deterred by any feeling that may have been aroused over the water works plant question, for it had been confidently hoped by the residents of the Second ward that the sewer in this district would be finished this fall.

COUNTY EXHIBITS.

The State Fair Offers Unusual Incentives to Counties this Year and Good Exhibits will be Seen.

One of the most valuable features of the Minnesota state fair has developed from the offer of the management of special premiums for county exhibits. Competition has been keen among the counties in the last two or three fairs and at the fair of 1903 it promises to be still more attractive. More counties than ever will participate in the display, and building on the experience of former years, the exhibits will certainly be finer.

The fair management offers $1,200 for county exhibits to be divided pro rata among the county exhibits scoring seventy points or more, and in addition makes these offerings:

For the exhibit scoring highest in this class an additional $200 will be paid; for the exhibit scoring second highest $150; for the exhibit scoring third highest $100; for the exhibit scoring fourth highest $75; for the exhibit scoring fifth highest $50; for the exhibit scoring sixth highest $25.

For taste and design in arrangement of the exhibits in this class, the following premiums are offered: 1st—$60.00, 2nd—$50.00, 3rd—$40.00, 4th—$30.00, 5th—$20.00. Entries in this class must be made by Saturday, August 22d, to insure space.

The fair opens Monday morning, August 31st, with an address by U. S. Senator Fairbanks, one of the great orators of the upper house of congress.

We furnish your house complete, easy terms.

BASE BALL NUBS

Manager Pat Boyle is arranging for a game of ball to be played in this city Sunday between Aitkin and the locals. The game Sunday was rather unsatisfactory from the fact that it rained so hard, but during the three innings that it did not rain, the spectators are said to have seen some pretty hot work on the diamond.

There is some talk of a game of ball in the near future with the fast St. Cloud team on the local diamond. With a good pitcher in the box the boys would make a better showing than some people perhaps think. The infield work of the locals is faultless at present and the execution of all the members of the team with the willow is way up among the fast ones.

Columbus Dispatch: Sullivan, the little center gardener for the Minneapolis team, is as good as McCreery any day. His one hand catch of Clingman's fly ball was one of the greatest seen here this year. Sullivan will bear watching. He led the Northern league in batting when the Millers picked him up.

There is another change in the Brainerd opera house orchestra and this time Prof. Graham will have charge. Graham's orchestra played at the opera house when it was first opened for nearly all the first season, and baring a few incidents, the best music was heard under their regime. A large number will welcome the orchestra back again as it was generally conceded that the work of the organization last year was anything but satisfactory. Manager Walker is bound that there will be good music this year and to this end has re-engaged the old orchestra.

Reports come from Pequot of a most untimely and horrible accident which occurred near that place a few days ago in which Henry, the ten-year-old son of Simon Simonson, lost his life.

The young lad was riding on a load of lumber with his father, as they were passing through a thick woodland a large half-burnt tree was blown down by the wind directly across the wagon, hitting the young lad on the top of the head. His head was crushed to a jelly and he was instantly killed.

The remains were taken to the home of the parents and the funeral occurred the first of the week. The parents are heartstricken over the sad affair.

STATE AID REDUCED.

There are More High Schools to Share State Appropriation This Year than in Former Years.

High schools of the state will only receive $1,385 of state aid this year, instead of $1,500, as the law allows them. In the distribution the amount had to be cut because of fourteen new schools admitted to the list. There are 155 schools and only $217,000 appropriated of which $6,500 comes out for expenses.

Under the law the state will only pay half what each school expends for high school purposes, so a number of schools get less than the $1,380.

Brainerd, however, is one of the schools which receives the full amount.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"HUNTING FOR HAWKINS."

"Hunting for Hawkins" is one of the brightest comedies produced in years. It is now in its third season of uninterrupted glory. Those who enjoy a good hearty laugh cannot afford to miss the rare treat that has been secured for their consideration.

Mr. Stephen Fitzpatrick, the quaint comedian, heads a company of really clever people, and as Owen Touchem, a professional relative, is irresistibly funny and keeps his audience in roars of laughter. Many specialties are interspersed, the singing of the LaBretto sisters being a special feature.

The phenomenal success of "Hunting for Hawkins" is surely a criterion of its worth and if you wish to laugh heartily and often see this attraction at the Brainerd theatre, Thursday evening of this week.

"A TEXAS STEER."

The New York Sun in speaking of Hoyt's successful comedy, "A Texas Steer," which comes to the Brainerd theatre next Friday, Aug. 14th, says: "A Texas Steer" could not have received a more enthusiastic reception at the Bijou if it had a hundred nights at this theatre, and the ovation it received last evening must have been very flattering to Mr. Hoyt the author, and the players. There were wagon loads of flowers, and Mr. Hoyt was forced to make a speech. He expressed his gratitude in quaint language and thoughtfully praised his company who had so faithfully carried out his ideas. "A Texas Steer" is evidently in for a long run."

CURE FOR HAY FEVER.

H. P. Dunn & Co. Say Hyomei will Give Relief—Sold Under Guarantee.

The season for hay fever is almost at hand and many people feel that they will be obliged to leave town in order to avoid the sneezing, watery eyes, and other annoying symptoms of this disagreeable summer disease.

H. P. Dunn & Co. wish to announce that when Hyomei is used, either as a preventative or cure, there will be no hay fever. They advise the use of Hyomei daily for two or three weeks before the usual time for the annual appearance of hay fever. In this way the attack will be prevented. If, however, the preventative treatment was not commenced soon enough and the disease comes on, use Hyomei six or seven times daily and also rub Hyomei Balm thoroughly into the nostrils both morning and night. This treatment will relieve at once and give a speedy and permanent cure.

Hyomei actually brings to your own home, a climate filled with ozone and healing balsams, the same air that one breathes at the White Mountains or other health resorts.

There is no stomach dosing when Hyomei is used. It is nature's own method for curing all diseases of the respiratory organs, and is breathed through a neat pocket inhaler that accompanies every outfit, so that the medicated air reaches the minutest air cells, killing all germs and soothing and healing the irritated mucous membrane.

It is the one treatment for hay fever where H. P. Dunn & Co. guarantee to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction. All who are subject to hay fever should begin its use at once so as to prevent the disease.

PRESIDENT TIGHE
REFUSED TO SIGN IT
Could Not Hear City When Asked
to Sign Warranty for Sewer Through Land.
A SPECIAL MEETING TO BE HELD
Council will Take Up Matter in Special Session and Will Take Action.

Another chapter has been enacted in connection, or rather emanating from, the questions which are just now agitating the minds of the members of the city council and citizens generally, which have to do with the betterment of the general sewerage and water works systems of the city, and the one now seems contingent upon the other and the matter has about worked itself down to a give and take proposition, with President Ambrose Tighe and the Minnesota Water Works company on the one hand and the city on the other.

At no time in the history of Brainerd has there been such important legislation as last winter, as affecting the interests of the city and the laying of plans for the future development and establishment of permanent municipal improvements, and naturally there have been and there are still contentions as between corporate and municipal interests, which must be fought out.

The bill introduced by Senator Ferris making provision for cities the size of Brainerd to establish and maintain sewerage systems has made it possible for Brainerd to take the first steps in a very important piece of work, and the members of the city council have been alert and have with every expediency taken the necessary steps looking toward the establishment of a thorough sewerage system in the city.

But the city council, it is understood, has just now run up against a snag, which temporarily may defeat the plans as originally laid out, but which it is thought will not result in the abandonment of the work so well started. As is well known in preparing plans for a new sewer, as in the case where the city council has decided to establish a sewer district, comprising all of the Second ward, creating sewer district No. 1, it is first necessary to secure a certain warranty or deed from the people through whose property the said main sewer or its laterals are to run. This work has progressed very satisfactorily up to within a few days ago when such a contract was sent to President Tighe of the Minnesota Water Works company for his signature, allowing the city to run a sewer through a certain strip of land which he owns lying between Fifth and Seventh streets, taking in what is known as the bottom or flat just below Bluff avenue.

City Attorney Fleming this morning informed a representative of the Dispatch, that President Tighe had refused to sign this contract or deed, and now it is said that a special meeting of the city council will be called to take up the matter and decide what to do. The only remedy is by condemnation proceedings, but it is thought the matter may be amicably settled without resorting to this procedure.

There are those who are ready perhaps to intimate that this is the manner in which President Tighe has for reciprocating for the action the citizen's committee took regarding his proposals at the last meeting, and the recommendations the committee made to the city council to commence proceedings to condemn the entire water works plant in this city. This would hardly be a logical conclusion but until some further explanation on the matter is heard from President Tighe it will be taken for granted that he is "getting back" at the city in this roundabout way.

In this connection it is stated that there are some of the members of the council who are not in favor of following the recommendations of the citizen's committee regarding the condemnation proceedings, but of course this is a question which will come to surface at the next meeting of council.

Heretofore there have been no barriers in the way of the city council in the matter of sewers and it is to be regretted that the work will be even temporarily deterred by any feeling that may have been aroused over the water works plant question, for it had been confidently hoped by the residents of the Second ward that the sewer in this district would be finished this fall.

COUNTY EXHIBITS.

The State Fair Offers Unusual Incentives to Counties this Year and Good Exhibits will be Seen.

One of the most valuable features of the Minnesota state fair has developed from the offer of the management of special premiums for county exhibits. Competition has been keen among the counties in the last two or three fairs and at the fair of 1903 it promises to be still more attractive. More counties than ever will participate in the display, and building on the experience of former years, the exhibits will certainly be finer.

The fair management offers $1,200 for county exhibits to be divided pro rata among the county exhibits scoring seventy points or more, and in addition makes these offerings:

For the exhibit scoring highest in this class an additional $200 will be paid; for the exhibit scoring second highest $150; for the exhibit scoring third highest $100; for the exhibit scoring fourth highest $75; for the exhibit scoring fifth highest $50; for the exhibit scoring sixth highest $25.

For taste and design in arrangement of the exhibits in this class, the following premiums are offered: 1st—$60.00, 2nd—$50.00, 3rd—$40.00, 4th—$30.00, 5th—$20.00. Entries in this class must be made by Saturday, August 22d, to insure space.

The fair opens Monday morning, August 31st, with an address by U. S. Senator Fairbanks, one of the great orators of the upper house of congress.

We furnish your house complete, easy terms.

BASE BALL NUBS

Manager Pat Boyle is arranging for a game of ball to be played in this city Sunday between Aitkin and the locals. The game Sunday was rather unsatisfactory from the fact that it rained so hard, but during the three innings that it did not rain, the spectators are said to have seen some pretty hot work on the diamond.

There is some talk of a game of ball in the near future with the fast St. Cloud team on the local diamond. With a good pitcher in the box the boys would make a better showing than some people perhaps think. The infield work of the locals is faultless at present and the execution of all the members of the team with the willow is way up among the fast ones.

Columbus Dispatch: Sullivan, the little center gardener for the Minneapolis team, is as good as McCreery any day. His one hand catch of Clingman's fly ball was one of the greatest seen here this year. Sullivan will bear watching. He led the Northern league in batting when the Millers picked him up.

PROF. GRAHAM THERE AGAIN.

Graham's Orchestra Will Hold Forth in the Pit at the Brainerd Opera House After Being Out Nearly a Year.

There is another change in the Brainerd opera house orchestra and this time Prof. Graham will have charge. Graham's orchestra played at the opera house when it was first opened for nearly all the first season, and baring a few incidents, the best music was heard under their regime. A large number will welcome the orchestra back again as it was generally conceded that the work of the organization last year was anything but satisfactory. Manager Walker is bound that there will be good music this year and to this end has re-engaged the old orchestra.

LAD MET HORRIBLE
DEATH AT PEQUOT

Riding on Load of Lumber with His Father, Tree Fell and Killed Him.

HEAD WAS CRUSHED TO A PULP

Parents are Prostrate Over Sad Affair—Funeral Held at Pequot First of Week.

Reports come from Pequot of a most untimely and horrible accident which occurred near that place a few days ago in which Henry, the ten-year-old son of Simon Simonson, lost his life.

The young lad was riding on a load of lumber with his father, as they were passing through a thick woodland a large half-burnt tree was blown down by the wind directly across the wagon, hitting the young lad on the top of the head. His head was crushed to a jelly and he was instantly killed.

The remains were taken to the home of the parents and the funeral occurred the first of the week. The parents are heartstricken over the sad affair.

STATE AID REDUCED.

There are More High Schools to Share State Appropriation This Year than in Former Years.

High schools of the state will only receive $1,385 of state aid this year, instead of $1,500, as the law allows them. In the distribution the amount had to be cut because of fourteen new schools admitted to the list. There are 155 schools and only $217,000 appropriated of which $6,500 comes out for expenses. Under the law the state will only pay half what each school expends for high school purposes, so a number of schools get less than the $1,380.

Brainerd, however, is one of the schools which receives the full amount. New line of trunks and grips just received at D. M. Clark & Co.

RAILROAD GOSSIP

W. L. Darling, chief engineer of the Northern Pacific, has resigned to accept a similar position with the Rock Island. His resignation comes as a great surprise to all save his most intimate friends. He will succeed John F. Stevens as chief engineer of the Rock Island system. President Mellen has appointed E. C. Pearson, assistant general superintendent with headquarters at Livingston, Mont., acting chief engineer.

The new arrangements at the N. P. depot in this city are said to be meeting with popular favor now since the trainmen have got onto the ropes. The great bone of contention at the depot every noon now is to get No. 5 off on time so that she can connect with the coast train at Staples.

It is said that Tom Cromwell, who has been stationed as flagman at the Sixth street crossing, will be replaced by a man who is now in the hospital here, who had his arm taken off recently.

PERSONALITY OF PIUS X.

New Pope of Humble Origin,
Scholarly and Kind.

BELOVED BY THE RICH AND POOR.

St. Peter and the Afflicted Know His Ministering Hand, and He Is the Friend of Italy's King and Queen.
How He Was Honored by Victor
Emmanuel—His Political Attitude
Said to Be Unknown.

(Copyright, 1903, by the Press Publishing company, New York World.)

The Venice correspondent of the New York World writes that the mental,
spiritual and physical attributes of Pope Pius X. will assure, it is asserted, an ideal sovereignty of the Roman church. A man of large, well filled
countenance and kindly eye bespeaking
gentleness, intelligence and humility, he bears himself nobly and with all the graciousness of a good king.

One abler or more widely loved could not well have been chosen for the high office. Sarto sits in the chair of Peter because of his splendid worth.
Politics, either of state or church, had naught to do with his elevation. Of all the cardinals of the sacred college Sarto knew least of political intrigue and hatred. A pure soul, above worldly things, he wears with peculiar propriety the title of "holy father."

Sarto spent half of his life in teaching the young. For many years he was the priest of a humble parish, with slender income, upon which there were many claims. He was past the meridian of life when honors sought him out, and then he rose to a bishopric. Promotion came fast after that, although Sarto made not the least effort to seize the prizes above him. His works brought the rewards.

Pope Pius X. is absolutely adverse to the church's pugnacious. As patriarch of Venice Sarto had most pleasant relations with the king and queen of Italy, showing to them that the spirit of peace was strong within him and that there was in his heart no atom even of bitterness toward his temporal sovereigns. Indicating fully his idea of the whole duty of the clergy, he reformed the abuses in the diocese of Mantua, of which he was bishop, insisting upon the clergy attending to their religious exercises to the poor and sick. He also held most modern views upon education, and brings to the Vatican a breadth of mind that cannot fail to still further exalt the papal influence throughout the world.

As an indication of the extent to which his character and views are known in this country it is most evident that the liberal Italians are delighted with him, regarding him as neither a politician nor a zealot, who will prove to be simply a religious pope, which has been the desire of the Catholic world for thirty years.

The fact is commented on that Sarto
was nine years a priest, nine years a vicar general, nine years a bishop and nine years a cardinal. It is also pointed out again that humble extraction has never been a hindrance in aspirations for a cardinalate or the pontifi-cate. The new pope is absolutely a self made man. He is descended from a family of very small people in the Venetian market town of Riese, diocese of Treviso, near Venice. He was of a brood of eight, six daughters and two sons. He was born in 1835, and is therefore sixty-eight years old.

Although patriarch, Sarto allowed his family to continue in the modest line of life to which they were born.
Three of his sisters are spinsters. One of the others, Antonia, is married to a man so poor that she must support
the family by dressmaking. Lucia is the wife of a sexton, who is occasionally a hawker, and the husband of the third sister keeps a little tobacco shop.
One of the maiden sisters is housekeeper at the patriarch's palace in Venice.

The pope's mother, now dead, occupied a small peasant's house, having in her humility always refused to live with her son Giuseppe, as even his modest establishment was considered by her to be too luxurious in comparison with what she was accustomed to. The elder brother of the pope, Angelo, lives in the village of Dellegrazie, province of Mantua, being the postman of the district and receiving $80
a year for his duties. He adds to his income by keeping a shop in which he sells tobacco and pork. He has two pretty daughters.

When Pius X. was bishop of Mantua
his brother Angelo used often to go there for reasons connected with his postal service. The other clerks would ask him jokingly why his brother did not find him a better position. Angelo, with sturdy independence, answered that he preferred only to be what he could make himself. Still, following papal precedents, the tobaccoist and postman of Dellegrazie should become a Roman count.

Sarto in English is "tattler," and Pius X., when a young seminarian, being rather elegant in his priestly robes, his companions used to joke with him, saying he evidently knew the business. He began his education at the diocesan seminary at Treviso, where he remained seven years, and continued it at Padua, the seat of the famous university, one of the best not only in Italy, but in the world. He was only twenty-three years old when he was consecrated a priest at Castelfranco, the birthplace of the great master Giorgione, acting afterward for nine years as condottiero to the parish priest of Tombolo, province of Padua, a village of 2,950 people, who were the first to appreciate his virtues. His kindness was untiring. He sought to

on their wants, and never a murmur was heard when he was called in the middle of a winter night to a deathbed which proved to be nothing of the kind.
He gave freely of his very small means,
and was often without food himself, keeping many a poor family from starvation.

In 1867 he was at last appointed parish priest at Salzano, considered an important promotion, being a village of 3,341 souls. Sarto was exceedingly sorry to leave Tombolo, having become attached to the people. The peasants when he left made a most enthusiastic demonstration, crying "Viva Don Giuseppe!" while the women whose children he had petted wept. He distinguished himself so much at Salzano
that he was kept there only two years,
which is remarkable in the career of an Italian parish priest. In 1875 he was elected chancellor of the bishopric of Treviso, then spiritual director of that seminary, judge of the ecclesiastical tribunal and finally vicar general.

Pope Leo, who had highly appreciated his cleverness, piety and modesty, appointed him in November, 1884, at the age of forty-nine years, bishop of Mantua, where he remained nine years, until 1893, when he was made a cardinal and appointed patriarch of Venice. In the Queen City of the Adriatic he distinguished himself as a thorough reformer, suppressing all abuses, restoring the dignity of the clergy and the earnestness of religion.
To him is due the revival of the Gregorian chant in the beautiful churches overlooking the lagoons and the strict return to liturgical rules.

Sarto soon became the idol of the Venetians. When his gondola passed along the canals the people rushed to the bridges and along the sides of the canals, kneeling and saluting the women exclaiming, "God bless the patriarch!" In those days the patriarch would say that he did not like to go out of sight of the lions of St. Mark's, which now he will never see again, if,
as is almost sure, he follows the rule inaugurated by his two predecessors—never to leave the Vatican. In the few times in which he went to Rome,
on returning, when asked if he enjoyed the gorgeousness of the papal court and the magnificence of the functions, he answered:
"When I am there I feel like a fish out of water."

The pope has very modest tastes, having retained almost the same
habits as when he was a mere curate at Salzano. He is severe, but was just with his clergy. There is nothing he dislikes so much as publicity. He de-tests the praise and compliments of courtiers. Frankness is another of his principal qualities, although he is somewhat timid. As the Italians say, he has no harm on his tongue or pen.

Although at first received coldly by the liberal Venetians, his affable manners soon made him many friends, and the official visit he paid to the king and queen, contrary to instructions received from Rome, made him the idol
of the population and a most welcome visitor in the homes of the patricians.
His favorite diversion was that of taking excursions in his gondola along the shore and landing at some point on the coast to pay surprise visits to the priests of his jurisdiction. At 6 o'clock every morning the patriarch was in the habit of going out for a long walk, usually to the sandy islands of Lido, which separate the lagoons of Venice from the Adriatic sea, as he loved exercise and the country. He went often to his native village of Riese, where he helped his many poor relatives.

The relations of Sarto with the house of Savoy are well illustrated by what occurred two months ago, when the king of Italy went to Venice to open the International Art exhibition. King Victor Emmanuel gave orders that the patriarch have precedence over all the local authorities, but Sarto, having arrived while the king was speaking to the prefect, who is the highest government official in the province, refused to be announced and said that he would not disturb his majesty. He remained in an antechamber conversing with the generals and admirals gathered there.
When the king learned of his presence
he came to receive him on the threshold of the chamber, and kept him in conversation, accompanying him afterward in a gondola, while all the soldiers rendered military honors to the ecclesiastic.

It was recently said of him that none
knew his attitude on political questions, but that the people of Venice knew that if there was sickness or suffering in the city he was sure to be found ministering to the afflicted with his own hands. They also know that he is a man of great learning, a preacher of great sermons, a writer of good books. They also know that when Cardinal Sarto undertook a work—the building of a church or the righting of a wrong—he never stopped till his efforts met success.

Beyond all else Pius X. is personally most unassuming, and is reputed to have gained more than one friendship through this very attribute. The story told of him by a correspondent, on his arrival in Rome for the conclave, whether based upon fact or the production of a fertile imagination, is a good enough illustration of the man to be worthy of reputation.

The pontiff was said to be receiving
the good wishes of his friends, bearing,
of course, upon the one subject that was uppermost in the minds of all, and
to a definite expression of hope that the choice might fall to him he is said
to have replied:

"Oh, no. I purchased a return ticket for Venice."

Pope Pius is in robust health and is most active despite his sixty-eight years. He belongs to the ecclesiastical congregations of bishops and regulars, sacred rites, indulgences and sacred relics. He has been known for many years as one of the greatest preachers
in the church.

INVOLVES VALUABLE MINES.

Decision in United States Circuit Court Against M. F. Gibson.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 11.—In the injunction suit of M. F. Gibson vs.
Indian Agent Anderson, Judge Hanford of the United States circuit court has handed down a decision upholding Agent Anderson in expelling Gibson
from the Spokane Indian reservation, where the latter has located mining claims.

Gibson contended that under the general laws he could locate claims previous to the president's proclamation withdrawing the land and hold them in spite of that order. The ruling involves much valuable mining property, claims to which are now declared worthless.

NO SALOONS AT BREMERTON.

Navy Department Wins Its Fight at Puget Sound Station.

Olympia, Wash., Aug. 11.—The controversy between the navy department and the town of Bremerton over the question of saloons in the neighborhood of the Bremerton navy yard was settled finally Monday by a decision of the state supreme court, which refused a Bremerton saloonkeeper permission to run his saloon pending an appeal from an adverse decision of the lower court.

The Bremerton town council, at the suggestion of the navy department, recently repealed all saloon licenses.
The saloonkeepers questioned the council's authority to do so.

ROOF GARDEN ON A CHURCH.

Will Be Open Every Night During the Heated Season.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—A roof garden
will be one of the features of the new edifice to be erected by members of the Metropolitan Church of Christ.
Both pastor and congregation believe
such a garden will be of great assistance to the church. It will be open every night during the heated season
and choice programmes of music will be presented and summer entertainments held there. The garden will surmount a building to cost $80,000.

SALMON PACK A FAILURE.

Shortage of Over a Hundred Thousand
Cases on Puget Sound.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 11.—With only 97,700 cases of sockeye salmon on the Sound and indications pointing to an early close of the season, there is every reason to fear that the salmon pack this year will be almost a failure. The pack shows a shortage of almost 125, 000 cases as compared with the catch
last year at this time.

Attorney General Knox Will Visit

Oyster Bay, L. I., Aug. 11.—Attorney General Knox will come here today to have a conference with the president.

The president desires to go over with him certain matters now pending in the department of justice, including that phase of the Littauer-Lyon glove contract case, which was referred to the attorney general.

The attention of the president last evening was directed to a published statement that Secretary of War Root expected soon to retire from the cabinet, and be succeeded by Governor Taft of the Philippines. It can be said that there is no definite foundation for the story. The president, since the first intimation a few months ago of Mr. Root's possible retirement, has hoped and still hopes that he will remain in the cabinet for a long time
yet. He believes that the secretary certainly will remain through the coming winter and probably much longer.

PERSONALITY OF PIUS X.

New Pope of Humble Origin,
Scholarly and Kind.

BELOVED BY THE RICH AND POOR.

Sick and the Afflicted Know His Ministering Hand, and He Is the
Friend of Italy's King and Queen.
How He Was Honored by Victor
Emmanuel—His Political Attitude
Said to Be Unknown.

[Copyright, 1903, by the Press Publishing
company, New York World.]

The Venice correspondent of the New York World writes that the mental,
spiritual and physical attributes of Pope Pius X. will assure, it is asserted,
an ideal sovereignty of the Roman church. A man of large, well filled
countenance and kindly eye bespeaking
gentleness, intelligence and humility,
he bears himself nobly and with all the graciousness of a good king.

One abler or more widely loved
could not well have been chosen for the high office. Sarto sits in the chair of Peter because of his splendid worth.
Politics, either of state or church, had naught to do with his elevation. Of all the cardinals of the sacred college Sarto knew least of political intrigue and hatreds. A pure soul, above worldly things, he wears with peculiar propriety the title of "holy father."

Sarto spent half of his life in teaching the young. For many years he was the priest of a humble parish, with
slender income, upon which there were many claims. He was past the meridian of life when honors sought him out, and then he rose to a bishopric. Promotion came fast after that, although Sarto made not the least effort to seize
the prizes above him. His works brought the rewards.

Pope Pius X. is absolutely adverse to the church pugnacious. As patriarch of Venice Sarto had most pleasant relations with the king and queen of Italy, showing to them that the spirit of peace was strong within him and that there was in his heart no atom
even of bitterness toward his temporal sovereigns. Indicating fully his idea of the whole duty of the clergy, he
reformed the abuses in the diocese of Mantua, of which he was bishop, insisting upon the clergy attending to
their religious exercises to the poor and sick. He also held most modern views upon education, and brings to
the Vatican a breadth of mind that
cannot fail to still further exalt the
papal influence throughout the world.

As an indication of the extent to
which his character and views are
known in this country it is most evident that the liberal Italians are delighted with him, regarding him as
neither a politician nor a zealot, who
will prove to be simply a religious
pope, which has been the desire of the Catholic world for thirty years.

The fact is commented on that Sarto
was nine years a priest, nine years a vicar general, nine years a bishop and
nine years a cardinal. It is also pointed out again that humble extraction
has never been a hindrance in aspirations for a cardinalate or the pontifi-cate. The new pope is absolutely a self made man. He is descended from a family of very small people in the Venetian market town of Riese, diocese of Treviso, near Venice. He was
of a brood of eight, six daughters and two sons. He was born in 1835, and
is therefore sixty-eight years old.

Although patriarch, Sarto allowed
his family to continue in the modest
line of life to which they were born.
Three of his sisters are spinsters. One of the others, Antonia, is married to a man so poor that she must support
the family by dressmaking. Lucia is
the wife of a sexton, who is occasionally a hawker, and the husband of the third sister keeps a little tobacco shop.
One of the maiden sisters is housekeeper at the patriarch's palace in Venice.

The pope's mother, now dead, occu-ped a small peasant's house, having
in her humility always refused to live
with her son Giuseppe, as even his
modest establishment was considered
by her to be too luxurious in comparison with what she was accustomed to. The elder brother of the pope, Angelo, lives in the village of Dellegrazie,
province of Mantua, being the post-
man of the district and receiving $80
a year for his duties. He adds to his income by keeping a shop in which he sells tobacco and pork. He has two pretty daughters.

When Pius X. was bishop of Mantua
his brother Angelo used often to go there for reasons connected with his
postal service. The other clerks would ask him jokingly why his brother did not find him a better position. Angelo,
with sturdy independence, answered
that he preferred only to be what he could make himself. Still, following papal precedents, the tobaccoist and postman of Dellegrazie should become a Roman count.

Sarto in English is "tailor," and Pius X., when a young seminarist, being rather elegant in his priestly robes, his companions used to joke with
him, saying he evidently knew the business. He began his education at the diocesan seminary at Treviso, where he remained seven years, and continued it at Padua, the seat of the famous university, one of the best not only in Italy, but in the world. He was only twenty-three years old when he was consecrated a priest at Castel-
franco, the birthplace of the great master Giorgione, acting afterward for nine years as coadjutor to the parish priest of Tombolo, province of Padua, a village of 2,950 people, who were the first to appreciate his virtues. His kindness was untiring. He sought to in their wants, and never a murmur

was heard when he was called in the middle of a winter night to a deathbed
which proved to be nothing of the kind.
He gave freely of his very small means,
and was often without food himself, keeping many a poor family from starvation.

In 1867 he was at last appointed parish priest at Salzano, considered an important promotion, being a village of 3,341 souls. Sarto was exceedingly sorry to leave Tombolo, having become attached to the people. The peasants
when he left made a most enthusiastic
demonstration, crying "Viva Don Giuseppe!" while the women whose children he had petted wept. He distinguished himself so much at Salzano
that he was kept there only two years,
which is remarkable in the career of an Italian parish priest. In 1875 he was elected chancellor of the bishopric
of Treviso, then spiritual director of
that seminary, judge of the ecclesiastical
tribunal and finally vicar general.

Pope Leo, who had highly appreciated his cleverness, piety and modesty, appointed him in November, 1884, at
the age of forty-nine years, bishop of Mantua, where he remained nine
years, until 1893, when he was made a cardinal and appointed patriarch of Venice. In the Queen City of the Adriatic he distinguished himself as a thorough reformer, suppressing all
abuses, restoring the dignity of the clergy and the earnestness of religion.
To him is due the revival of the Gregorian chant in the beautiful churches
overlooking the lagoons and the strict
return to liturgical rules.

Sarto soon became the idol of the Venetians. When his gondola passed
along the canals the people rushed to
the bridges and along the sides of the
canals, kneeling and saluting, the women exclaiming, "God bless the patriarch!" In those days the patriarch
would say that he did not like to go out of sight of the lions of St. Mark's, which now he will never see again, if,
as is almost sure, he follows the rule
inaugurated by his two predecessors—
never to leave the Vatican. In the
few times in which he went to Rome,
on returning, when asked if he enjoyed the gorgeousness of the papal
court and the magnificence of the
functions, he answered:

"When I am there I feel like a fish
out of water."
The pope has very modest tastes,
having retained almost the same
habits as when he was a mere curate
at Salzano. He is severe, but was just
with his clergy. There is nothing he dislikes so much as publicity. He de-tests the praise and compliments of courtiers. Frankness is another of his principal qualities, although he is somewhat timid. As the Italians say,
he has no harm on his tongue or pen.

Although at first received coldly by
the liberal Venetians, his affable manners soon made him many friends, and
the official visit he paid to the king
and queen, contrary to instructions received from Rome, made him the idol
of the population and a most welcome
visitor in the homes of the patricians.
His favorite diversion was that of taking excursions in his gondola along the shore and landing at some point on the coast to pay surprise visits to the priests of his jurisdiction. At 6 o'clock every morning the patriarch
was in the habit of going out for a long walk, usually to the sandy islands of Lido, which separate the lagoons of Venice from the Adriatic sea, as he loved exercise and the country. He went often to his native village of Riese, where he helped his many poor
relatives.

The relations of Sarto with the house
of Savoy are well illustrated by what
occurred two months ago, when the king of Italy went to Venice to open the International Art exhibition. King Victor Emmanuel gave orders that the patriarch have precedence over all the local authorities, but Sarto, having arrived
while the king was speaking to the prefect, who is the highest government
official in the province, refused to be announced and said that he would not disturb his majesty. He remained in
an antechamber conversing with the
generals and admirals gathered there.
When the king learned of his presence
he came to receive him on the threshold
of the chamber, and kept him in conversation, accompanying him afterward in a gondola, while all the soldiers rendered military honors to the ecclesiastic.

It was recently said of him that none
knew his attitude on political questions, but that the people of Venice
knew that if there was sickness or suffering in the city he was sure to be found ministering to the afflicted with his own hands. They also know that he is a man of great learning, a preacher of great sermons, a writer of good books. They also know that when Cardinal Sarto undertook a work—the building of a church or the righting of
a wrong—he never stopped till his efforts met success.

Beyond all else Pius X. is personally
most unassuming, and is reputed to
have gained more than one friendship
through this very attribute. The story told of him by a correspondent, on his arrival in Rome for the conclave,
whether based upon fact or the production of a fertile imagination, is a good enough illustration of the man to be worthy of reputation.

The pontiff was said to be receiving
the good wishes of his friends, bearing,
of course, upon the one subject that
was uppermost in the minds of all, and
to a definite expression of hope that
the choice might fall to him he is said
to have replied:

"Oh, no. I purchased a return ticket
for Venice."

Pope Pius is in robust health and is
most active despite his sixty-eight years. He belongs to the ecclesiastical congregations of bishops and regulars,
sacred rites, indulgences and sacred relics. He has been known for many years as one of the greatest preachers
in the church.

INVOLVES VALUABLE MINES.

Decision in United States Circuit
Court Against M. F. Gibson.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 11.—In the injunction suit of M. F. Gibson vs.
Indian Agent Anderson, Judge Hanford of the United States circuit court
has handed down a decision upholding Agent Anderson in expelling Gibson
from the Spokane Indian reservation,
where the latter has located mining
claims.

Gibson contended that under the general laws he could locate claims
previous to the president's proclamation withdrawing the land and hold them in spite of that order. The ruling involves much valuable mining property, claims to which are now declared worthless.

NO SALOONS AT BREMERSTON.

Navy Department Wins Its Fight at
Puget Sound Station.

Olympia, Wash., Aug. 11.—The controversy between the navy department and the town of Bremerton over the question of saloons in the neighborhood of the Bremerton navyyard was settled finally Monday by a decision of the state supreme court, which refused a Bremerton saloonkeeper permission to run his saloon pending an appeal from an adverse decision of the lower court.

The Bremerton town council, at the
suggestion of the navy department,
recently repealed all saloon licenses.
The saloonkeepers questioned the
council's authority to do so.

ROOF GARDEN ON A CHURCH.

Will Be Open Every Night During the
Heated Season.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—A roof garden
will be one of the features of the new
edifice to be erected by members of the Metropolitan Church of Christ.
Both pastor and congregation believe
such a garden will be of great assistance to the church. It will be open
every night during the heated season
and choice programmes of music will
be presented and summer entertainments held there. The garden will surmount a building to cost $80,000.

SALMON PACK A FAILURE.

Shortage of Over a Hundred Thousand
Cases on Puget Sound.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 11.—With only 97,700 cases of sockeye salmon on the Sound and indications pointing to an early close of the season, there is every reason to fear that the salmon pack
this year will be almost a failure. The
pack shows a shortage of almost 125,000
cases as compared with the catch
last year at this time.

TO CONFER WITH ROOSEVELT.

Attorney General Knox Will Visit
Oyster Bay.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Aug. 11.—Attorney
General Knox will come here today
to have a conference with the president.

The president desires to go over with
him certain matters now pending in
the department of justice, including
that phase of the Littauer-Lyon glove
contract case, which was referred to the attorney general.

The attention of the president last
evening was directed to a published
statement that Secretary of War Root
expected soon to retire from the cabinet and be succeeded by Governor Taft of the Philippines. It can be said that there is no definite foundation for the story. The president,
since the first intimation a few months ago of Mr. Root's possible retirement, has hoped and still hopes that he will
remain in the cabinet for a long time
yet. He believes that the secretary certainly will remain through the
coming winter and probably much longer.
